

INSTRUCTION TO AUTHORS

Abstract presented will be published by competitive and priority selection on a dedicated number of the European Journal of Surgical Research (Current Impact Factor: 1,500)
To the best 20 presentations, the Scientific Committee will ask for an "in extenso" manuscript.

Please follow the instructions given, otherwise your abstract cannot be selected for review. A summary of the guidelines is as follows:

Official Journal of SPIGC

European Surgical
Research
Clinical and Experimental Surgery

- The abstract language is English
- The text should be Times New Roman 12 and not more than 250 words
- The use of 1 table or 1 graph is possible
- The abstract must consist of four paragraphs labelled:

OBJECTIVE, METHODS, RESULTS, CONCLUSIONS

The text and the title should be free from abbreviations, except those commonly used. It should concisely address the problem and the purpose of the study (OBJECTIVE); how the study was performed (METHODS); the main findings with numerical date and statistical significance (RESULTS); and the principal conclusions drawn from the study (CONCLUSIONS)

The title of the abstract should be printed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The first author name must be the PRESENTING and CORRESPONDING author; the same author cannot present more than 2 abstracts and they should be of different typology. The name(s) of the author(s) should be preceded by the full first name (middle name Initial optional) - omit titles. There should be no more than 10 authors. Please be aware that rules set by ESR editorial office state that no more than 8 authors are allowed for a paper from a single Institution and no more than 10 authors for multi-Institutional studies. Since the abstracts will be judged anonymously, the text may not reveal the institutional affiliation

Mark the category which best describes the subject of your abstract, in which session you'd like to present your abstract and in which way (oral presentation, case report, video or poster). The material should not have been published or presented at any international meeting before

For more information see the Conference-Site www.giovanichirurghi.it.

Abstracts will be accepted by e-mail or fax: d_parmeggiani@yahoo.it or +39-081-5750145

All abstracts should be submitted and posted according to the format and instructions described above no later than 31 January 2011
